

HONORS AND AWARDS

Featured on visualnews.com

Featured speaker at the BYU-Idaho, December 2011 graduation, representing the Department of Visual Arts.

Helped launch the first issue of '8 Faces Magazine' by Elliot Jay Stocks

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Fine Arts, Graphic Design Brigham Young University-Idaho Rexburg, Idaho
Graduated December 2011

EXPERIENCE

Freelance Graphic Design

January 2009 - Present

Various clients and locations.

Graphic Designer

BYU-Idaho Department of Music
April 2007 - December 2011

Improved the Departments quality of posters and publications ▪ Lowered printing costs and oversaw two other designers ▪ Worked with an assortment of music instructors to create conceptually driven posters

Designer

Romney Geology Museum
July 2010 - September 2011

Educated the Museum staff on the value of design and user experience
▪ Developed exhibit concepts, blueprints and oversaw the installation of the new exhibit ▪ Exceeded the museums expectations and worked within a limited budget

Student Senior Designer

BYU-Idaho Creative Services
April 2008 - December 2009

Designed official university print projects, campaigns and interactive media ▪ Worked within a strict, restrictive brand standard

SKILLS

Ability to think through problems and articulate intelligent solutions

Solid understanding of design principles, thinking and typography

Educating clients on the value of design principles

Self motivated and meets deadlines

Robust understanding of the Creative Suite

Understands web technologies including HTML and CSS

Google Sketchup

Willingness and ability to learn new techniques and software

Excellent at working with others

INTERESTS

My wife and family

Learning new ways of thinking

Reading compelling stories

Drawing

Typography

Music (playing and listening)